PAY YOUR TAXES AND AVOID THE PENALTY

The first half of the county taxes must be paid by next Monday night or a 15 per cent penalty will be added. Personal checks will not be accepted. You must send a certified check, a bank draft or a money order.

The residents of the Tropico section must remember that their taxes must be paid in two places this year, county tax to W. O. Welch, county tax collector, Los Angeles, and city tax to J. W. Stauffacher, city treasurer of Glendale, at the Glendale City Hall on East Broadway. The Glendale city taxes become delinquent on the second Monday in December.

KEEP YOUR PLEDGE

State Director G. A. Davidson, National War Savings Committee for California (South), has issued the following message to the people of Southern California:

"In this great hour of the world's history, there is one question that is staring every one of you in the face. It must be answered and answered satisfactorily before you have a right to take your part in the great and justifiable rejoicing. Have you kept your War Savings Pledge? If not, you have failed to aid in winning the victory and the only way in which you can gain a share in it and all that it means to present and future humanity, is by paying that pledge at once. It is to give you this opportunity that we are to have W. S. S. Honor Week. If you made a pledge to your banker, your landlord, your tradesmen, would it occur to you that you would continue to be an honorable citizen if you abrogated that pledge? Then, above all pledges the one made to your government—YOUR government—is sacred. Face the issue and see if there is any possible reason for not keeping it. Then, when you have fully discovered that your honor demands that you keep your word, celebrate Honor Week by fulfilling your obligation. Then celebrate Victory by buying a bit more.

"Unless you do this, your cheers and your rejoicings are empty words that carry no farther than your own ears. Make good that pledge and the very battlefields of France will echo your gladness."

AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Southern California, the "Kingdom of the Motor," boasts an automobile club more than twice the size of any similar organization in the world. Its membership roll now numbers more than 15,000 and its service is the most complete of its kind to be had anywhere.

Motor travel over our incomparable highways would be robbed of many of its joys were it not for the fifty thousand guide posts giving direction and mileage, that the Auto Club has erected at its own expense.

While signposting is the most conspicuous service rendered by the Automobile Club of Southern California, it is but one of the multiplex activities of that organization. The mapping and draughting department has prepared composite and strip maps of every highway and byway in California, and has even gone so far as to issue one of the most comprehensive maps of transcontinental motor routes that is procurable.

The Automobile Club of Southern California is a co-operative organization of motorists for the benefit of motorists. All of its receipts are used for the betterment and maintenance of its service. Among the many privileges that the members of this mammoth organization enjoy are: free tow car service within Los Angeles County, insurance at cost through the club's inter-insurance exchange, services of experienced detectives employed by the club's Theft Bureau in case car is stolen, service of legal department in matters pertaining to motoring, and courtesies at the official hotels and garages selected by the club on all important routes.

from a hospital somewhere in France a wounded American has written to his parents:

"We are going through hardships, but the boys are taking hold in the good old American way."

What a message for those of us who have remained at home! What a challenge to the vast army of men and women who are in the home guard, carrying on in the thousand and one ways that the exigencies of war have brought upon us.

"We are going through hardships."

We can believe that, when we recall the dauntless charges which our boys have been making over there, and the daily lengthening casualty lists which are resulting from their fearless devotion to the task that is set before them.

We know they are going through hardships, when we stop to think of the hundreds upon hundreds who are wounded, and who for the time being at least need care and attention.

Of course they are going through hardships, those boys from your home and mine. Hardships are a part of war. They are the inevitable result of a state of war. And when war is waged by an enemy so skilled in all the fiendish devilttries in which the Germans have indulged, they are the inescapable portion of every soldier participating.

But hardships are not the part of the war these soldiers of ours are thinking most about. They are but the incidents in the day's work.

"The boys are taking hold in the good old American way."

THANKSGIVING SONG

By Samuel Parker

Sung at the Union Thanksgiving Services at First M.E. Church of Glendale.

He Hath Made Us a Great Nation
(Air: "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder")

As gladly we go forward upon our pilgrimage,

Our voices let us blend in joyous song

To our Father God who gives us such goodly heritage;

Our homage and our praise to Him belong.

Chorus

We will praise His name forever (evermore),

We will praise His name forever (evermore),

We will praise His name forever,

We will praise his holy name forever more.

His powerful hand sustained us when struggling to be free;

A weak and feeble Nation at our birth;

His Providence now orders our grander destiny

Among the Mighty Nations of the earth.

Chorus

In loyalty declaring He over us shall reign,

And fully to His favor thus restored
His promises assure us that we shall e'er remain

A Nation free whose Sovereign is the Lord.

Chorus

Glendale Cal., Nov. 28, 1918.

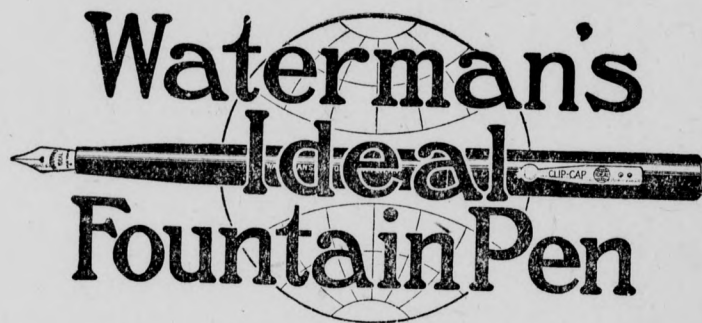

FAIR TO OPEN SOON

A representative of the California Liberty Fair visited the Press office on Thursday, and stated that the fair would open as soon as the Los Angeles health authorities lift the ban on public gatherings. The date has been definitely set at least twice, now, and then postponed, so this time the fair officials have not set a day, but will be ready to start off the big show with a vim when permission is given.

FIRST TO ARRIVE HOME

Sergeant G. Smith From Virginia
Home Thanksgiving

A telegram received at 9:30 on Thanksgiving morning from San Bernardino asking that he be met at the Santa Fe in Los Angeles at 11:30 was the first news telling that Sergeant G. Smith, son of J. Herbert Smith, of the Glendale Grocerteria, was on his way home from the Central Officers' Training School at Petersburg, Virginia.

The joyful news was received, and the party was at the Santa Fe long before the train arrived. It was a Thanksgiving that will long be remembered by those in the family. The Thanksgiving dinner was eaten at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunchberger.

Sergeant Smith left Glendale in May, and was with Co. C, 72nd Regiment, at Camp Lee, Virginia. He was sent to the Officers' Training School and the company he was with was sent to Siberia.

Sergeant Smith is the first one to return to Glendale from any of the camps.

WIND DOES DAMAGE

Following the rain of last Saturday night, a hard wind struck Glendale in the early hours of Sunday morning, and continued all day Sunday and Monday. The Los Angeles weather bureau reports the wind there as of the greatest velocity in thirty-seven years.

Considerable damage was done to trees in all parts of Glendale, giving the department of trees plenty of work in clearing away the debris. A number of awnings in the business district were whipped to ribbons, and several signs were blown down. The wind seemed to have a particular spite at the roofs of small outbuildings, scattering roofing paper far and wide. Outside of such small matters, no damage was reported here.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS FROM LOS ANGELES MEET HERE

On account of the fact that the influenza ban was still on in Los Angeles and had been removed here, a great many Christian Scientists from that city attended a lecture at the Glendale Christian Science Church last Sunday. The lecture, which was by Andrew J. Graham, one of the board of lectureship of the Mother Church, at Boston, had been scheduled for a Los Angeles church, but the decision of the Los Angeles health authorities, to keep the lid on a little longer necessitated a change, and it was decided to come to Glendale. The lecture was delivered twice, at two o'clock and at four.

Private Walter Witworth, a former resident of Glendale, died in France a short time ago of pneumonia, according to word received by his brother, Will Witworth, of Los Angeles. His wife, who was a sister of Mrs. C. M. Good, of South Louise Street, died at their home on North Jackson Street, a little less than two years ago. Witworth left for training camp last April.

The Dr. Duncan and H. W. Myers families observed the Thanksgiving day most enjoyably with all the attendant ceremonies, at the Duncan home on San Fernando Boulevard.

Ray W. Lee, son of W. W. Lee, president of the First National Bank, who has been visiting relatives here for the past two weeks, is leaving today for Washington, D. C., where he is in government service.

At the home of Mrs. Ellen L. Early, on East Palm Avenue, a nine-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jens Askeland, of Burbank, Friday, November 22nd. This is the third son, and he is such a splendid little fellow that neither the parents nor grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pratt, have found a name good enough for him yet.

D. I. Nofziger and family left Thursday night for Yorba Linda, Friday they will meet their daughters, Misses Ruth and Olga, who are teaching at Imperial, at Dixie Land and there visit old friends with whom Miss Olga boarded when she taught there, and then returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Louise Purnell, of 337 Riverdale Drive, has given a most cordial invitation to all members of N. P. Banks Post, Corps and Sons of Veterans, to meet at her home on the evening of Thursday, December fifth. The affair is to be a sort of "house-warming," and Mrs. Purnell says the guests can arrive at six and stay as long as they care to. All who have had the pleasure of enjoying Mrs. Purnell's generous hospitality are anticipating a good time.

Mrs. Noble Ripley has received word announcing the safe arrival of her husband overseas and is now looking for more detailed information concerning his voyage and adventures. Mr. Ripley entered the service about four months ago, and is very fortunate to have gotten across, even though he may not get to do much regular fighting.

Mrs. Sewall Spaulding, wife of the druggist at the corner of Park Avenue and Brand Boulevard, who returned from Tulare Saturday, was stricken with a severe attack of the "flu" Sunday and has been in a serious condition. Miss Louise Spaulding, whose school at Tulare has been closed again on account of the epidemic, came home Tuesday and is caring for her mother.

Mrs. Marie Stoermer spent Thanksgiving with her sister in Los Angeles.

Miss C. B. Adams, of Glendale Avenue, and Sarah Say Snell of Eulalia Street, are among the "flu" victims this week.

A meeting of the Kensington Club of the N. P. Banks W. R. C. will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Rhea, 1246 South Maryland (Blanche) Avenue, Thursday afternoon, December 5th, at one-thirty o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Rhea in receiving will be Mmes. Nina Richards and Lena Roberts.

There were many dinner parties given in Glendale Thursday, commemorating the glad Thanksgiving. There was none any merrier than the one at which Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan presided in their home on South Central Avenue. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mr. William A. Hough, Misses Dorothy Hobbs, Mary Logan and Mary Pauline Craig and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear and daughters Katherine and Joanne, of Penn Street, who have recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Spear's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, in Imperial Valley, report having quite a strenuous time while in the valley. Mr. Spear contracted a case of the "flu," then Mrs. Spear became ill with the same disease. Miss Amy Miller, who had accompanied them south, became quite ill, too, and an uncle, Mr. Bert Burlingham, who lives on an adjoining ranch, came over to assist in caring for the patients, when he was taken sick, too, with the prevailing "flu." However, all are fully recovered now, and the Spears enjoyed their visit, but they think Glendale is the best place in which to live.

"The best war?" The one that was never fought.

Mr. J. Wilson, of Seattle, is visiting his brother, Perry Oswald, of Cypress Street.

Arthur G. Munn, who has been living in Glendale for the past year, is moving to San Fernando, where he has bought the San Fernando Press. Mr. Munn was formerly in the real estate business in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller entertained with a Thanksgiving dinner at their home on West Acacia Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, of South Central Avenue, have returned from a trip to Pennsylvania, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Crawford's father. Mrs. Eliza J. Crawford, the mother of Mr. Crawford, accompanied them home, and will spend the winter season here in our Sunny Southern California.

The Miller home was prettily decorated with red flowers and autumn leaves, and the daintily appointed table was centered with a low bowl of beautiful red flowers and graceful ferns. The repast was one of those good, old-fashioned turkey dinners, prepared in true Southern style. Seated with the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Hearn Robinson and son Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alexander and children, Doris, G. E. and Lester Lee, all of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall and daughters Henrietta and Regina, of Alhambra.

The many friends in this community of Mrs. Alice Carpenter Crandall extend their sincere sympathy to her in her recent bereavement. Her husband was stricken with the influenza about two weeks ago, which later developed into pneumonia, and he passed away Monday morning, November 25th. The private interment took place in the Odd Fellows Cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Crandall, who was but twenty-two years of age, leaves, besides his young widow, a two-year-old child. Mrs. Crandall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Carpenter, who until recently lived on South Central Avenue, and is the sister of Mrs. Sam Rich.

Myron Betz, brother of H. E. Betz, who was brought to Glendale from Sacramento a short time ago critically ill with double pneumonia, is recovering, and has been taken from the Glendale Sanitarium to the home of his mother.

"Jimmy" Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mason of Chestnut Street and a popular member of the Elks, arrived in San Francisco last Sunday night from Alaska. His parents had feared that he was aboard the ill-fated "Princess Sophia."

PEARL KELLER'S LIBERTY BALL

The first social dance of the season since the influenza ban was lifted was given at the Keller Dancing School last Saturday night. It was well attended, and proved a delightful affair, despite the fact that it was such a rainy night. The two large gas grates in the spacious ballroom threw out a congenial glow, and looked very cheerful and homey. Mrs. Keller intends to give these social dances every Saturday night, and they will undoubtedly prove a great boon to many young people of Glendale who would otherwise go to the city for recreation and pleasure.

"TURKEY NIGHT"

Last Monday night was "Turkey Night" at the Elks' Club, and about 60 turkeys were distributed, according to the annual custom. About 150 were in attendance.

At a short business session a committee was appointed to arrange for a fitting reception for the members of the club who are with the 143d and 144th Field Artillery, who are reported to be on their way home. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

GREATER GLENDALE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

The adoption of the name given above was the principal accomplishment of the meeting held at 134 North Brand Boulevard on Tuesday night in the way of organizing a civic association for this community. The committee which had been appointed at the meeting of a week before for the purpose of choosing a name suggested "Glendale District Development Club," but this did not exactly meet the approval of the assemblage, and it finally evolved into Greater Glendale Development Association."

Officers for the association were named also, the choice being: president, Norton C. Wells; vice president, Charles H. Toll; secretary, C. D. Lusby; treasurer, F. H. Vesper. Twenty-five second vice presidents are to be named, who will choose from their number an executive committee of seven members. Another meeting will be held on next Tuesday night.

HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY MAKES PLANS

A meeting of the Faculty of the Glendale Union High School was held Monday, to devise a plan of making up, in so far as possible, the time lost during the influenza epidemic, while the school was closed. It was decided, instead of overburdening the students by doubling up lesson assignments, that each teacher should look over all work carefully in advance, and place the emphasis of the work on the most important points, giving the less essential parts only passing attention. It is believed that in this way the most satisfactory results possible may be obtained.

County Superintendent Keppel has announced that the teachers' institute, which is usually held the week before Christmas, will be dispensed with, for the present, at least, so that time will be given over to school work this year.

Since the first quarter of the school year has already passed, the grade marks will not be given out for that quarter at present, but will be given out at the end of the half-year, when the grade reached by the student in the work for the two quarters will be given as the grade for each on the report card.

DEMOBILIZATION

There are 2,200,000 United States soldiers in France and in other foreign lands. There are 1,750,000 soldiers in American training camps.

The troops in America will be demobilized down to the necessary number to do guard duty and man permanent establishments. This means that probably a million and a half now in local camps will be discharged as speedily as demobilization machinery can be constructed.

Discharging an army is a big job. All the men must be physically examined and a complete record of each must be made up. Pay to a certain time must be arranged and travel arrangements must be perfected.

Even so, a million soldiers now in America should be well on their way home or at home in 60 days.

The entire force in this country should be dismissed by spring.

There will probably be an effort to send half a million soldiers of the French contingent home in 70 days. First the wounded who can travel will come. The badly wounded will not be moved until quarters can be arranged for them in American convalescence hospitals. Along with these must come a contingent of American physicians from France.

The famous 42nd division, it is reported, will be the first returned. Then will come other divisions in order of length and hardness of service. This arrangement should bring us the 30th division by spring. That division was in Belgium and in the big fighting around St. Quentin. The artillery was over in the Meuse sector and was at it hammer and tongs all of September and October and during the fighting days of November.

Ship room to America should be reasonably ample. Of course England will not be able to lend us many ships, for hers will be needed to send home the Canadians, Australians and the New Zealanders.

But the ships that take food and clothing abroad can bring soldiers home.

However, it is reasonable to assume that a million American soldiers will be abroad all of next summer. They may be needed to straighten out Russia and keep the South Germans from fighting the Prussians.

Many will also be needed to care for American property and American railways in France.—Ex.

KAISER PLANNED TO RULE WORLD AFTER 6 MONTHS WARFARE

Thought Theft of Iron and Coal
From France, Land From Russia, Would Pay Bill

Planning world trade domination, if not actual world rule, as the outcome of a short six-months' campaign in Europe, Germany now finds herself outcast from among civilized nations, her people impoverished, her honor irrevocably stained by the blood of Belgium, and facing a future of fathomless ignominy and disgrace.

"I will make room for my growing people by taking some more of France and a few thousand square miles of Russia," said the Kaiser. "We will get the iron and coal in Northern France for manufactures which we will sell the conquered population of Russia, and this, besides indemnities, will more than pay for the war. England will not dare come in, and our merchant fleets will soon crowd her from the world trade routes.

"If the United States does not acquiesce, her manufacturers will get no more of our dyes and chemicals, her farmers no more of our fertilizers. And we will also take away from her all South American commerce."

GERMAN GRAVES GRIM ANSWER

Now, across the graves of a million of his young men, the Kaiser is beginning to see the sun set on the smallest of his ambitions. "Foch will never cross the Rhine," is now the German watchword. German cities, shrieking beneath the visitation of allied and American airplane bombers cry out: "No more of this barbarity." Such cries are echoed in the ghostly laughs of thousands of Gotha and Zeppelin victims in London and Paris.

The Rhine will be crossed, and Cologne and Berlin will wince beneath the shells of Allied guns.

"Five million men in France," cries America. "Remember Belgium and end the war in 1919."

To America and her five million fighting men in France will come the greater glory of the world war. But that end will not be achieved without the sacrifice of thousands of those men, nor without the most earnest and united support of those of us at home. Where we have given valiant efforts to war work heretofore, we must thrust our shoulders desperately against the wheel of war preparations from now on. To no one person or class is it given to do a greater share in this war than any other person or class. Each must do his utmost.

WEIGHT RESTS ON AMERICAN FARMER

Upon no one class rests a greater responsibility than upon the American farmer, who with his wives and sons and daughters constitutes one-third of our population. He has the first and great responsibility of providing food for the nation at home, food for the fighting men abroad, and food for our allies in the battle line and their civilian population.

England, with millions of acres of parks and hunting grounds converted into farms can only raise crops to feed her people half the year. France, with every man in uniform, and nearly half her fields overrun by armies, does even less.

With her grain fields extended by millions of acres of new land, America is responding to the call and allied hunger will never be an ally to Germany. Billions of dollars of America's huge war loans are coming back to the farmer in payment for his grain and stock.

The farmer, for his future honor and standing in the nation, must see that every penny of this sum he can spare is reinvested in war loans.

Intensive Food Saving Drive Planned to Create Surplus for Export to Famine Victims.

Issued by U. S. Food Administration for California

With the liberated peoples of Europe facing famine, and millions of women and children looking to America as their salvation from death by hunger and privation, the United States Government, through the Food Administration, has planned to launch a nation-wide intensive food saving drive beginning December 1st. This drive will begin simultaneously in every state and last seven days. During this period the national conscience will be aroused to the dire necessities of the famine victims abroad, whose needs until their next harvest can be filled only by rigid saving of foods in America's kitchens.

The seven days' campaign will be known as "World Relief Week" and will be ushered in by the reading of a special message from Federal Food Administrator Herbert Hoover in churches of all denominations throughout the country. California's share in the great drive was arranged at a meeting November 22nd in San Francisco, when all county food administrators, women directors and food conservation speakers met under the auspices of the California Food Administration.

The Hoover message will also be read during the week in all fraternal and other organizations, followed by meetings in each county and city under the direction of food administration officials. On Wednesday, December 4th, special food saving exercises will be held in women's clubs throughout the state, followed on Friday by similar demonstrations in the public schools.

Under the direction of the speakers' bureau of the Food Administration, a score or more public speakers will tour the state, making addresses in hundreds of cities, towns and villages and giving in detail the reasons why America must continue to export foods to the war-stricken victims of German militarism, as a measure to prevent anarchy and riots, to set up and maintain internal peace and amity and to permit the great work of economic and political reconstruction to be pursued along broad humanitarian lines.

Citizens of all California communities are urgently requested to aid in making "World Relief Week" another triumph for the idealism which American democracy stands for by attending the meetings and heeding the message for food conservation.

Economy in Wheat Very Necessary

Food Saving Program Remains Unchanged Except That Wheat Flour May Be Used Without Substitutes.

Issued by U. S. Food Administration for California

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Elimination of the substitute regulations has not relieved the imperative necessity for continued economy in the use of wheat flour in the homes of the nation, and all public eating places will be held strictly to the order which forbids the service of more than two ounces of wheat bread per person at each meal.

This was announced today by the California Food Administration on advices from Washington. Acting Federal Food Commissioner Preston McKinney explained that the former general wheat saving program remains in effect, with this change: Instead of eating bread mixed with substitutes it may now be used when made from pure wheat flour, but economy should be exercised in the consumption of all breadstuffs, as well as in other foods.

The 80-20 substitute rule was abandoned primarily to relieve a world-wide shortage in coarse grain feeds for domestic animals. Most of the substitute flours were made from those grains and consequently a great scarcity for stock feeding developed. In view of the large domestic wheat crop and the fact that additional stores of wheat were made available by the signing of the armistice, the Food Administration rescinded the substitute program to relieve the pressure on coarse grains urgently needed for American and European dairy and swine herds, which have been greatly depleted by the war.

Food officials explained that the abandonment of the substitute rule has been widely but erroneously misinterpreted as meaning that further conservation of wheat products, particularly flour, had become unnecessary. In order to fulfill America's pledge to export approximately 20,000,000 tons of food prior to June 30th, next, to prevent millions of liberated peoples from becoming famine victims, the nation must restrict its wheat consumption as rigidly as prevailed under the war program of food saving.
